

HUSBAND HELD TO EXPLAIN THE DEATH OF WIFE

Paul Gaber Taken From This City to Long Branch for Coroner's Inquiry.

(Special to The Evening World.) LONG BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 21.—Paul Gaber, the husband of the woman that was found dead in her room at No. 27 Broadway, this city, yesterday was arrested in New York City, brought here by Detective William D. Walling and locked up in the city jail early today.

Gaber, who is about the age of his wife (twenty-three), was brought here on suspicion that he was connected with the death of his wife, but it was learned at his boarding-house in New York that he had not been away from there any length of time during the past week, and, therefore, it is believed by many that he could not have taken any hand in the death of his wife. The woman was found in her room lying in a crouching position. A nose of bed pillow had been placed around her neck and fastened to a bed-post. The body was bruised, indicating that a struggle had taken place. The woman's nose and eyes had been partially eaten away, and it is believed carbolic acid was used in some manner.

Frank Lapella, who found Mrs. Gaber, made a statement to Coroner Teller that the husband of the woman was in Long Branch on Sunday last, but left early in the day, and it is on these grounds that Gaber was brought back to Long Branch to give an account of himself.

Gaber declares that he had nothing whatever to do with the death of his wife and can prove himself innocent of the charge. While being brought to Long Branch on the train he was nearly all the way.

In all probability the case will be decided one of these days. It is believed Gaber can give a proper account of himself.

ROUTED TWO BURGLARS.

Joseph Bruno, proprietor of a candy store at No. 263 North Sixth street, Williamsburg, was awakened in a rear room of his store today and saw two men forcing an entrance from the hallway.

Bruno seized his revolver and fired four shots at the men and they fled.
An iron pipe was found in the hallway, Bruno says, he believes the men intended clubbing him with it.

THAT INSURANCE LID TO COME OFF AGAIN.

Kelley and his friends may cease to scold.
Now that the lid has again come off.

TROPHIES FOR IRISH KICKERS AND HURLERS.

James Scheduled for Sunday With Bring Out Exciting Contests With Noted Teams.

Right in line with the other big athletic events that are now coming thick and fast will be the games of the County Caran Young Men's Protective and Benevolent Association at West New York (N. J.) Athletic Field next Sunday. This hustling organization has secured teams from among the best in the "Irish Counties" Athletic Union, which will make the contests the cream of those fought this season.

The one dominated by J. J. Breen will be contested for by the York and Roscommon teams of Gaelic football experts. This will be a case of fighting every inch and every second of the game. There will be two challenges between Kilkenny and Monaghan and Meath and Cavan.

There are other athletic events scheduled for the afternoon, which promises to be the greatest success of this young organization. The field is reached from the West Forty-second street ferry railroad boat and Bergen Line Avenue car.

JAMESTOWN VISITORS' MISHAP.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company's steamer Norfolk ran aground early today forty miles from this city. The passengers, many of them Jamestown excursionists, were transferred to the steamer Jamestown and brought to this city.

GIRL OF 7 SET EIGHT FIRES IN TWELVE DAYS

Child Sent to Randall's Island Institution as a Dangerous Pyromaniac.

In Maple Mills, seven years old, of No. 147 Bay Thirtieth street, Bath Beach, the doctors in the Home for Feeble-Minded Children on Randall's Island today said they have the most remarkable pyromaniac that ever came under their observation. She is the daughter of Frank Mills, a lamp-lighter.
From July 21 to Aug. 11 her desire to see leaping flames and soaring smoke caused eight alarms to be sent for small blazes at her father's home. The child had been in the Sheltering Arms, in Dean street, Brooklyn, since her mother's death five years ago, until a month ago.

Her first experiment was July 21, when she piled shavings on the parlor floor and set fire to them. She danced in glee as the flames came thundering up, and it was not long afterward until she began setting fire to mattresses, pillows, clothing in chests, and once, when her sister Jessica, the "little mother" of the family, refused to take her to the beach, she set fire to her sister's clothing. Another time she struck a match and set her own hair afire. Three times in one day the Mills flat was fired, but only one of the eight fires resulted in any damage of consequence.

Deputy Fire Marshal Brophy, after an investigation, had the girl detained as a dangerous pyromaniac, and on recommendation of Dr. P. S. York, of the Public Charities Bureau, she was sent to Randall's Island yesterday.
Her brother, Frank, nineteen years old, who was arrested a few days ago, suspected of starting the ninth fire in the flat, is under observation at the Kings County Hospital.

FIRST AID FOR MARTYRS TO ART

Inventive Press Agent at the Hippodrome Springs a New One.

Scene—The Hippodrome, Forty-third street and Sixth avenue.
Time—Today.
The stage is full of girls and draperies and E. P. Temple, stage director.
Suddenly there is a rushed pause.
The echoes of the stage director's voice die away in diminishing rumbles, the beautiful maidens, cease their mad gyrations.

Hark!
Clang, clang, clang!
A. Tuxen Worm, publicity promoter, enters, disguised as an ambulance.
What has happened?
Yvonne McKenzie, one of the mermaids, has fainted.
A. Tuxen Worm, publicity promoter, enters, disguised as an ambulance.
What has happened?
Yvonne McKenzie, one of the mer-
maids, has fainted.

They take her to the nice, clean, white hospital that has been established in one of the dressing-rooms.
There they commit her to the tender care of Miss Marion Hawley, E. P.
(meaning trained nurse), and in a few minutes Miss McKenzie is out mermaid-ing again.

Hardly a day passes, according to the veracious Mr. Worm, that this scene is not repeated once or twice—days, even to a hospital is going some.

TOOK ONE DRINK TO COOL OFF; DIED

Whiskey and Hot Weather Fatal to John Gray, a Painter.

John Gray, painter's helper, employed in William See's shoe, No. 24 Eighth avenue, was killed by a combination of one drink of whiskey and hot weather today. Just where Gray lived the police have not learned, but it is said that he has a wife and children who were dependent upon him.
Gray, with Samuel Williams, of No.
42 Tenth avenue, also a painter's helper, thought a drink would cool them off after a night's work and stood in a station near the paint shop. After the drink Gray complained of being ill.

"I'm so hot," he said, "I can't stand it. Take me to the shop, where I can turn the cold water on my head." Gray was bathing his head, and Williams left him for a time, looking the street door behind him. When Williams returned Gray was dead.

Williams was held by the police as a witness. Gray's body was taken to the West Twentieth street police station.

Three or four times—but not always with Miss McKenzie playing the stage part.

Mr. Temple works the girls so hard at rehearsal that they just cannot help fainting.

Just think of what martyrs they are to their art!

However, sending a fainted chorus girl to a hospital is going some.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 80 years—the genuine Castoria. We especially call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in blue. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines.
It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

A Special Mid-August Sale Of Used Pianos

A Splendid Lot of Used Pianos and Piano Players That Offer Remarkable Investment Bargains

An unusual accumulation—for mid-August—of fine used Pianos on our floors prompts this extraordinary sale. We have decided to clean them out quickly, at very low prices, greatly to the advantage of the many people who are looking around at this time for real piano bargains.

There are three main groups among the instruments offered to-day: An exceptionally fine collection of Upright Pianos, that have been returned from rental—only slightly used, and in every way as good as new. Yet it is possible to save a clear hundred dollars on a beautiful Chickering Upright, merely for the sacrifice of a little sentiment.

Then there is a large group of excellent Uprights that have been exchanged for other pianos or piano-players. These have all been through our factory and placed in best possible condition. We never accept pianos in exchange that will not offer good value at the price at which we sell them; and the present lot is no exception to the rule. The lowest-priced Upright is $110, and there are others at about whatever you wish to pay.

The gathering of Player-Pianos and Players presents some remarkable opportunities to purchase these very popular instruments, in perfect playing order, at considerable savings from full prices.

There are also some very desirable offerings of Grand and Square Pianos.
All these instruments can be purchased on easy terms—a small sum down, the difference in monthly payments.

This August Sale is not large, as Wanamaker piano events go, but the offerings are very choice, and it is important, if you want a piano, to make your selection promptly.

ANTY
DRUDGE

Anty Drudge Gives Advice.
Eleanor (in tears)—"Here's my prettiest shirtwaist torn and ruined by that nasty laundry. I haven't a clean one to wear to the party to-night." Anty Drudge—"Well, that one is past helping and crying for, but if you will get a cake of Fels-Naptha soap I'll show you how to get another one clean in a hurry, in cold water, with very little work. We'll iron it, too, in a jiffy and it will be far cleaner and fresher than any laundry can make it."

How long your light summer clothes last depends not on how much they are worn, but on how often they are washed.
That is, if they are washed in the old-fashioned way.

If they are washed with Fels-Naptha in cold or lukewarm water, the washing won't harm them a bit.

Boiling hurts any clothes, but it is particularly hard on light stuffs, such as sheer linens, lawns, laces and muslins—rots the fabric so they will tear easily. And hard rubbing on the washboard wears them out and frays them.

You avoid this by washing the Fels-Naptha way in cold or lukewarm water. Boiling and hard-rubbing are unnecessary, because Fels-Naptha dissolves the dirt into tiny particles which are sent flying by light rubbing and thorough rinsing.

Then, too, the clothes are cleaner, whiter and sweeter, as well as longer-wearing.

Be sure to follow the easy directions on the red and green wrapper.
